questions will not have an incorrect answer. Each student must respond only from their own clicker. Answering questions for another student on their clicker who is absent is a violation of the student honor code. I will be enforcing this policy by having one TA at each lecture be responsible for collecting attendance prior to clicker questions. If the number of clicker responses exceeds the number of students in attendance, the TA will determine who is not in attendance but has answered a clicker question. Also, TAs will be looking to spot students who have more than one clicker. This policy is not meant to be harsh, but simply to provide students with the proper incentive.
