all information covered in class lectures. If you miss a class, you should be able to get notes from one of your classmates. Throughout the semester, I will randomly assign class worksheets which you will complete in groups or individually. These worksheets will not be graded but you will receive an extra credit towards an upcoming examination for working on them.

Grading:

Your grade will consist of two midterm exams, a cumulative final exam and homework assignments. Each portion of your grade will be weighted as follows:

Midterm 1:	20%
Midterm 2:	25%
Final Exam:	35%
Homework Assignments:	20%

Exams:

I will not give any make-up exams and will not give exams early. I will not give make up exams, please do not ask. The final exam is cumulative, which means you will be tested on the material from the entire semester. The dates for both midterms are to be determined as the class progresses.

Tentative Exams Outline:

- Midterm 1 (Short run chapters 2, 3, 4, 5)
- Midterm 2 (Medium run chapters 6, 7, 8, 9)
- Final (previously covered chapters plus long run chapters 10, 11, 12, and open economy chapters 18, 19, 20)

Problem Sets:

Problem sets consist of 20% of your course grade. The problem sets must be handed in at the beginning of class on the day they are due. I will announce problem sets as they are posted. You may miss one assignment as your lowest problem set grade will be dropped.

Late assignments and associated penalties:

One day late	20% deduction
Two days late	«
Three days late and more	«

You may work on the homework assignments in groups. However, each person must submit their own write-up of each problem set. Handing in identical homework is not permitted.
